

Five characteristics that recommend Interwhao

- 1 Stylish property where design students live. Popular furniture and name-brand kitchen appliances enhance daily life! Relaxing spaces such as a working room and garden space, which have been fully designed, are also available.
- 2 0 yen deposit and key money, no guarantor required
Furnished with furniture and appliances Since 2000 of our establishment, we have provided the service with no key money, no guarantor required. Initial cost is only rent, utilities, and contract fee 30,000 yen. Usually, we do not charge any cleaning fee when you move out.
- 3 Our staff lives in a sharehouse for the house management Our staff also lives in major properties. We will respond immediately to any problems. We also pay attention to the sanitary aspects of our properties and provide a comfortable living environment.
- 4 Regular international event There are plenty of opportunities to interact with new people, something you rarely experience in everyday life. Many of the residents are from overseas.
- 5 Explanation of house rules and manners in advance so that residents can live together safely and nicely. In shared living, it is important to follow rules and manners and to be considerate of each other. We will explain the rules and manners to you in advance, and only those who agree to them will move in.

Message from the House Manager

Firsthouse Funabashi There are students from all over the world attending various schools living here. Even those who are shy at first become friends through events, and enjoy eating and studying together.

Ma Maison Nishi Magome This is a business hotel type women-only studio, but utilities (water, electricity, gas), and internet are available from the time you move in. This is recommended for those who value privacy!

Firsthouse Omori The property has a spacious kitchen and a working room that is ideal for telework and remote classes, and is recommended for those who want to concentrate!

Firsthouse Nishi Funabashi There is a vegetable garden in the courtyard, where you can freely grow vegetables and fruits. The fitness space next to the living room is also often utilized, especially by foreigners.

Firsthouse Minami Urawa This is a large house where seasonal events are often held with a spacious living room and kitchen. The facilities related to water are separated in men and women. The house is close to the station, so you will have no trouble shopping and eating/drinking.
